Numb. 12787.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 16, to Tuesday September 19, 1786.

St. James's, September 19.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop of the Dioceſe, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lincoln, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop, attended by the Reverend the Dean of Lincoln, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of the Dioceſe, and the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lincoln, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's late providential Deliverance from the Hand of Violence.

Conſcious of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe and auſpicious Government, and of that Countenance and Support which Religion and Morality derive from your eminent Virtues and exemplary Conduct, we have already offered up, with affectionate Zeal, our public Thanks to the Father of Mercies for this His gracious Interpoſition.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, acting under the Influence of theſe deep Impreſſions, as well as penetrated with Horror at the atrocious Attempt upon your Majeſty's Life, we will not fail, in our reſpective Stations, to inculcate upon the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects thoſe Principles of Loyalty and Love of Order, which will prove the beſt human Security to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; while we daily implore Almighty God, that your Majeſty may long continue to be the happy Inſtrument of diſpenſing His Bleſſings to a grateful People.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 14 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Lichfield and Coventry, has been preſented to the King by the Reverend Dr. Vyſe, Canon Reſidentiary of Lichfield, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Lichfield and Coventry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Lichfield and Coventry, humbly beg Leave to preſent our Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the late alarming Attempt which endangered your Majeſty's Life.

Upon ſuch an awful Occaſion your Subjects are not only induced to contemplate the various Advantages which are derived to the whole Community, from your Majeſty's unwearied Exertions for their general Good, but they alſo feel, with peculiar Tenderneſs, the favourable Influence that your Majeſty's Government hath on thoſe Objects, which their particular Situations and profeſſional Engagements keep more conſtantly and immediately in their View.

We, then, at the ſame Time that we are thankful to the Almighty Diſpoſer of human Events for prolonging to us, by this Inſtance of His Goodneſs, a Government, which we from Experience know to be mild, equal and parental, are impreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of His providential Care, in reſpect of the Intereſts of Religion.

Theſe Intereſts can never, we are well aſſured, have a ſtronger Support than they receive at preſent from the whole Tenor of your Majeſty's private as well as public Life; and we moſt earneſtly pray, that this Support may long continue to be the Bleſſing and the Glory of your People.

[Signed by the Biſhop and 144 of the Clergy.]

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heretors of the County of Linlithgow, has been preſented to the King by the Earl of Hopetoun, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Linlithgow.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heretors of the County of Linlithgow, beg Leave, with the warmeſt Affection, humbly to congratulate your Majeſty, and the Nation, on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the late horrid Attempt made againſt your Sacred Life by the daring Hand of Infanity; and, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, to expreſs our Joy and our Gratitude to Almighty God for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, as important important as it dear to us and the Nation. We gladly ſeize this Opportunity of repeating the ſtrong Senſe we have of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, and of your ſignal Attention to maintain our happy and free Conſtitution. Our fervent Prayers to Heaven are, that the Enjoyment of thoſe Bleſſings may be long continued to us by the Preſervation of your Majeſty's moſt precious Life, and the Proſperity and Happineſs of your Royal Houſe.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Linlithgow, the Eighth of September, 1786.

Roſebery, Preſes.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkeſbury in the County of Glouceſter, ſincerely participating in the general Joy diffuſed through your Majeſty's Dominions on the late providential Deliverance of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon from the daring Attempt of a mad Aſſaſſin, beg Leave to preſent your Majeſty with our moſt humble and hearty Congratulations.

Truly ſenſible how deeply we are concerned in the Life of a Sovereign the Father of His People, we moſt devoutly offer up our Thanks to that Almighty Power whoſe Arm was our Shield in the Moment of Violence; together with our Prayers that the ſame Divine Interference may auſpiciouſly continue to protect and defend your Majeſty, and to preſerve the Government of theſe Kingdoms in your Royal Houſe to the lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal at the Tolſey in the ſaid Borough, the Twelfth Day of September, in the Twenty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Pembroke, has been preſented to the King by William Knox, Eſq; Sheriff, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Pembroke, at the Grand Seſſions aſſembled at Haverfordweſt, the Twenty-eighth Day of Auguſt, 1786.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Pembroke, truly ſenſible of the many and great Bleſſings we in common with all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects enjoy, under your Majeſty's mild, equal, and moſt gracious Government, and of your tender Affection and paternal Regard for the Conſtitutional Liberties, Proſperity and Happineſs of all your People, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majeſty's providential and happy Eſcape from the late atrocious and horrid Attempt upon your moſt precious Life.

Deeply impreſſed with the alarming Apprehenſions of the calamitous Conſequences which, but for the gracious Interpoſition of the Almighty, might have attended that moſt execrable Attempt, we eagerly embrace the Conſolation of reflecting, that none of your Majeſty's Subjects were found ſo abandoned in Principle, ſo loſt to all Senſe of your Royal Goodneſs, or ſo deſtitute of Regard for the Welfare of their Fellow Subjects, as to be capable of the flagitious Act, but a Wretch deprived of the Powers of Reaſon, and thence degraded below the Rank of Humanity.

That your Majeſty's precious Life, ſo eſſential to the Happineſs of all your People, may long be ſpared to their earneſt Supplications at the Throne of Mercy, and that your Royal Virtues may, with your Crown, deſcend to your lateſt Poſterity, is and ſhall be our conſtant Prayer; and we can with Confidence aſſure your Majeſty, that it is the unanimous Petition of the Inhabitants of this ever loyal and dutiful County.

[Signed by the Sheriff and 16 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Rutland, has been preſented to the King by the Earl of Winchelſea, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Rutland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Rutland, beg Leave to offer their moſt ſincere Congratulations upon your providential Eſcape from the late daring Attempt made upon your Perſon.

Deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the many Bleſſings enjoyed under your Majeſty's Protection and Government, and of the great Value and Importance of your Majeſty's Life to theſe Kingdoms, Permit us, Royal Sir, to add our fervent Prayers that you may continue long to reign over a free and united People.

[Signed by 100 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governor and Officers ſtationed in the Iſland of Guernſey has been preſented to the King by Lieutenant-Colonel Browne, Lieutenant-Governor of the ſaid Iſland, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governor, Officers of the different Corps, and Half-Pay Officers ſtationed and reſiding in the Iſland of Guernſey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Officers, do humbly beg Leave to expreſs our heartfelt Satisfaction on your late moſt happy and providential Deliverance from that truly unmerited and dreadful Attempt which ſo imminently endangered your Royal Perſon, dear to your Subjects in general, but particularly ſo to your faithful Army.

Permit us, Moſt Gracious Sovereign, to offer up our moſt fervent Prayers to that Supreme Being who has ſo happily protected a Life ſo very precious to your Subjects, and to implore that your Reign may be continued long and proſperous over us.

[Signed by the Lieutenant-Governor and 28 other Perſons.]

Guernſey, Auguſt 20, 1786.

The following Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity-Houſe of Deptford Strond, has been preſented to the King by Sir George Pocock, K. B. Maſter of that that Corporation, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity-Houſe of Deptford Strond.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, beg Permiſſion ſincerely to congratulate your Majeſty on the merciful Interpoſition of Divine Providence, in preſerving your Majeſty's valuable Life in the late Moment of Danger.

Truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings your Subjects enjoy under the Protection of your Majeſty's Government, and warmly attached as we are to your Royal Perſon and Virtues, we moſt ardently join in earneſt Prayers to Almighty God, that your Majeſty may continue to reign, with uninterrupted Felicity, in the Hearts of a faithful and affectionate People, to the utmoſt Extent of Years and Glory.

Given under our Common Seal, this Seventh Day of September, 1786.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Newbury, has been preſented to the King by George Vanſittart, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Berks, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Newbury, firmly attached to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and impreſſed with a due Senſe of the great and ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your auſpicious Government, moſt humbly preſume to offer our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majeſty on your late happy Eſcape from the Danger of Aſſaſſination; and at the ſame Time that we reflect with Horror and Diſdain on the Attempt made upon your Majeſty's Life, we cannot but feel the greateſt Comfort and Satisfaction in finding that the Hand of Inſanity alone guided ſuch an Attempt.

We beg Leave alſo to tender our moſt humble, and yet moſt ſincere Aſſurances of inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to implore the Goodneſs of Divine Providence to protect you in all Dangers, and to preſerve to us the invaluable Life of our moſt gracious Sovereign, that he may long and proſperouſly reign over a loyal and affectionate People.

[Signed by 104 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Compton, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, truly ſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we daily enjoy under your wiſe and auſpicious Government, humbly beg Leave to lay at your Feet our ſincere Congratulations on the providential Preſervation of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon from the late alarming Attempt againſt your Majeſty's Life.

The Reflection on ſo atrocious an Attempt, and the dreadful Conſequences your Kingdoms would have experienced had the horrid Deſign been actually perpetrated, loudly call upon us to offer our unfeigned Thanks for this Interference of Divine Providence; and we beg Leave to add our fervent Prayers for a long Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign over us, and that your Royal Offſpring may convey thoſe Bleſſings we now enjoy to the lateſt Poſterity.

[Signed by 208 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the Town of Appleby, has been preſented to the King by the Honourable John Leveſon Gower, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the ancient Corporation of Appleby, (at their Town-Hall aſſembled,) highly ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, humbly beg Leave to preſent their dutiful Congratulations upon the late providential Eſcape of your Majeſty's moſt valuable and Sacred Life from an Attempt which had nearly been attended with Conſequences moſt fatal to the Nation, and of courſe would have involved your loyal and dutiful Members and Inhabitants of this Corporation, with the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, in a Scene of the utmoſt Calamity and Diſtreſs.

Convinced of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Affection for the Welfare of all your Subjects, the Members and Inhabitants of this Corporation will pray to the Almighty, that you and your moſt amiable Conſort may enjoy every Bleſſing that this World can admit of, and that the ſame Hand of Providence which manifeſted Itſelf ſo conſpicuouſly on this Occaſion, may protect you and your Family under all Difficulties and Diſtreſſes, and that you may long live to reign over a free, happy and united People.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, the Fourth Day of September, in the Twenty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Portreeves, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Aſhburton, has been preſented to the King by Sir Robert Palk, Bart, and Robert Mackreth, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was peaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeves, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Aſhburton, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our moſt ſincere and hearty Congratulations on your late providential Deliverance from the dire Aſſault of an inſane Aſſaſſin.

Words cannot convey an adequate Idea of the extreme Horror we feel at this moſt atrocious Attempt on the Life of your moſt Sacred Perſon, and of our Thankfulneſs to the great Diſpoſer of all Events for His gracious Interpoſition ſo ſignally manifeſted on this Occaſion, Occaſion, in arreſting the Hand of Aſſaſſination, and thereby preſerving a Life of ſuch infinite Value to the Happineſs of your Illuſtrious Family, and the Welfare and Proſperity of your People.

Penetrated with the warmeſt Sentiments of Love and Eſteem for your paternal Regard of your Subjects, we moſt ardently pray that the Almighty will be graciouſly pleaſed to vouchſafe the Continuance of His moſt merciful Protection to your Majeſty, guard you from all Danger, and grant that you may long, long live in the Enjoyment of perfect Health and every other Bleſſing.

[Signed by 137 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal has been preſented to the King by Rowland Stephenſon and James Farrer, Eſqrs. being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, in the County of Weſtmorland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the antient and loyal Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, beg Leave to offer our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late dangerous Attempt on your Sacred Perſon.

Attached as we have always been to your Illuſtrious Houſe, and impreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude for the many Benefits we and our Fellow Subjects enjoy under your Majeſty's mild Government, we moſt earneſtly pray to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and happy over a free and united People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Corporation, the Fifth Day of September, 1786.

David Jackſon, Mayor.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of Chriſtchurch has been preſented to the King by Sir John Frederick, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of Chriſtchurch, in the County of Southampton.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of Chriſtchurch, beg Leave to approach your Throne, humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on that evident Protection of the Divine Providence, whereby your Majeſty's invaluable Life has been preſerved when in imminent Danger from the horrid Attempt of an Aſſaſſin.

We moſt heartily concur with our Fellow Subjects in thoſe juſt Emotions of Loyalty which their numerous Addreſſes have expreſſed; and as we are truly ſenſible of the great Bleſſings derived to theſe Realms from your Majeſty's wiſe, mild, and auſpicious Government, we earneſtly pray, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Town Hall of the ſaid Borough, this Eighth Day of September, 1786.

St. Alb. Roy, Mayor.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and others, of the Borough of Weſtbury, has been preſented to the King by Samuel Eſtwick, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, attended by the Earl of Abingdon, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and others of the Borough and Town of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and others of the Borough and Town of Weſtbury, beg Leave, through the Channel of our Repreſentatives, (equally intereſted in, and we are perſuaded fully partaking of, the ſame Sentiments with ourſelves) moſt humbly to offer to your Majeſty, in the Fervency of Thanks to Heaven, and of Zeal and Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the late happy Eſcape of your Majeſty from the traiterous Attempt of Aſſaſſination, levelled againſt, though by the Hand of Providence averted from, your Royal Perſon.

When we contemplate your Majeſty in your domeſtic Capacity, with the ſubordinate Feelings of ourſelves, firſt, as the tendereſt and beſt of Huſbands to the deareſt, moſt exemplary, and moſt amiable of all Conſorts; and next, as the Father of a numerous and illuſtrious Offspring, planning the Proſperity of each, and by Example as well as Precept promoting the Good of all, the Caſe is our own; we feel for ourſelves, and our Hearts are wrung by our Thoughts.

But when we look up to your Majeſty in your higher and ſtill more exalted Character, in your political Capacity, as the Father of your People diſpenſing to us, and to the Reſt of your grateful Subjects, the genuine and unpolluted Bleſſings of that Conſtitution under which we live, and at the Head of which you, Great Sire, are placed, our Feelings are carried beyond ourſelves; and whilſt we are loſt in the Magnitude of the Idea, and are led to deplore the Heinouſneſs of the Offence, the only Conſolation (beſides the Safety of your Majeſty) we find is, that it was an Act in which the Senſes had no Guilt: It was an Act of Inſanity.

May your Majeſty long live! The Reaſons of this are too obvious to mention.

[Signed by 24 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Arundel has been preſented to the King by Thomas Fitzherbert, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Arundel, in the County of Suſſex.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Arundel, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne with our moſt ſincere Congratulations tulations on the happy Deliverance of your Majeſty from the daring Attempt which ſo lately endangered your Royal Perſon.

Senſible of the many and important Bleſſings we enjoy under the mild and equitable Government of your Majeſty, we are happy on this Occaſion to expreſs our Joy at the Interference of Divine Providence, in preſerving a Life ſo very eſſential to the Happineſs and Proſperity of all your Majeſty's Subjects; and we join with the general Sentiments of your People, in teſtifying our utter Abhorrence of ſo daring and impious an Attack.

We ſincerely pray, that the ſame Almighty Power which has hitherto preſerved, will long continue to us the invaluable Bleſſing of your Majeſty's Life; and that your Illuſtrious Family may continue to reign over the Hearts of a free, happy, and united People, to the lateſt Poſterity.
